
Post-Production

By sunscope — December 9, 2024

Our rates are structured for well-funded productions, but we're open to offering discounted rates for select independent or lower-budget projects.

From Raw Footage to Finished Film

At Sunscope Entertainment, we offer comprehensive post-production services that transform raw footage into polished, professional content. Whether you're producing a feature film, commercial, music video, or episodic series, our experienced post team handles every technical and creative step — from first cut to final delivery.
