A ROMANTIC MUSICAL ADVENTURE

THE DAWGS

a film by Ntinas Theodorou and Ben Gebert

Title: THE DAWGS

Genre: Musical Comedy / Family Adventure

Creators: Ntinios Theodosiou and Ron Cobert

In a world where dogs rule, THE DAWGS are a legendary—if somewhat dysfunctional—music group known for their killer tunes and a mission to spread peace, love, and goodwill. But wherever they go to perform, mystery seems to follow.

This time, the trouble is personal. Their close friend Silvia has been kidnapped by a sinister, wealthy mogul. Alex, the band's passionate lead singer, is head over heels for Silvia and convinces the rest of the group to join him on a wild rescue mission.

With the help of their magical ally Orpheus—the ancient father of melody who believes in the power of music as magic—they set out to save Silvia. Along the way, they face danger, friendship, and the true strength of harmony.

Their reward? A celebratory concert to fund a dream: opening a no-kill ranch for underdog pups in need.
